(2) When the Chairperson is unable to discharge his functions owing to absence, illness or any other cause, the Central Government may authorize the senior-most Member to discharge the functions of the Chairperson until the date on which the Chairperson resumes his duties.

(3) The senior-most member designated to act or to discharge functions of the Chairperson under sub-sections (1) and (2) shall continue to draw salary and allowance of a Member.

CHAPTER III

JURISDICTION, POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE NATIONAL TAX TRIBUNAL

15. (1) An appeal shall lie to the National Tax Tribunal from every order passed in appeal by the Income-tax Appellate Tribunal and the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal, if the National Tax Tribunal is satisfied that the case involves a substantial question of law. Appeal to the National Tax Tribunal.

(2) The Chief Commissioner or the Commissioner of Income-tax or the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner of Customs and Central Excise, as the case may be, or an assessee aggrieved by any order passed by the Income-tax Appellate Tribunal or any person aggrieved by any order passed by the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as aggrieved person), may file an appeal to the National Tax Tribunal and such appeal under this sub-section shall –

- (a) be filed within one hundred and twenty days from the date on which the order appealed against is received by the assessee or the aggrieved person or the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner, as the case may be;
- (b) be in the form of a memorandum of appeal precisely stating therein the substantial question of law involved; and
- (c) be accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed:

Provided that separate form of memorandum of appeal shall be filed for matters involving direct and indirect taxes:

Provided further that the National Tax Tribunal may entertain the appeal within sixty days after the expiry of the said period of one hundred and twenty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring an appeal in time.

- (3) Where an appeal is admitted under sub-section (1), the National Tax Tribunal-
- (a) shall formulate the question of law for hearing the appeal; and
 - (b) may also determine any relevant issue in connection with the question so formulated-
- (i) which has not been so determined by the Income-tax Appellate Tribunal; or by the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal; or
 - (ii) which has been wrongly determined by the Income-tax Appellate Tribunal or by the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal,
- and shall decide the question of law so formulated and the other relevant issue so determined and deliver such judgment thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded and may award such cost as it deems fit.

(4) Where in any appeal under this section, the decision of the Income-tax Appellate Tribunal or the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal involves the payment of any tax or duties, the assessee or the aggrieved person, as the case may be, shall not be allowed to prefer such appeal unless he deposits at least twenty-five per cent. of such tax or duty payable on the basis of the order appealed against:

Provided that where in a particular case the National Tax Tribunal is of the opinion that the deposit of tax or duty under this sub-section would cause undue hardship to such person, it may dispense with such deposit subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose so as to safeguard the interest of revenue.

Procedure and powers of National Tax Tribunal.	16. (1) The National Tax Tribunal shall not be bound by the procedure laid down by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 but shall be guided by the principles of natural justice.	5 of 1908.
	(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Ordinance, the National Tax Tribunal shall have powers to regulate its own procedure.
	(3) The National Tax Tribunal shall have, for the purposes of discharging its functions under this Ordinance, the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 while trying a suit, in respect of the following matters, namely:-	5 of 1908.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) requiring the discovery and production of books of account and other documents; (b) subject to the provisions of sections 123 and 124 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, requisitioning any public record or document or a copy of such record or document, from any office; (c) dismissing an appeal for default or deciding it, ex parte; (d) setting aside any order of dismissal of any appeal for default or any order passed by it, ex parte; (e) rectifying any mistake or error apparent on the face of record; and (f) any other matter which may be prescribed. 	1 of 1872.
	(4) All proceedings before the National Tax Tribunal shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 and for the purposes of section 196, of the Indian Penal Code and the National Tax Tribunal shall be deemed to be a Civil Court for the purposes of section 195 and Chapter XXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.	45 of 1860. 2 of 1974.
Finality of order of National Tax Tribunal.	17. Any order passed by the National Tax Tribunal shall be final and shall be given effect to accordingly and no civil court shall have or be entitled to exercise any jurisdiction, power or authority with respect to any of the matters falling within the jurisdiction of the National Tax Tribunal.
Decision by majority.	18. If the Members of a Bench consisting of two Members differ in opinion on any point, they shall state the point or points on which they differ, and make a reference to the Chairperson, who shall hear the point or points himself or nominate any other Member for such hearing and such point or points shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, who have heard the case including those who first heard it.
Special Bench.	19. Where a judgment pronounced on a question of law by a Bench subsequently comes up for hearing before any Bench, it shall make a reference to the Chairperson of the Tribunal to constitute a special Bench consisting of three Judicial Members and two Technical Members to hear and decide such question of law.
Interim order.	20. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Ordinance or any other law for the time being in force, no interim order (whether by way of injunction or stay or otherwise) shall be made in relation to any appeal under this Ordinance, unless- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) copies of such appeal and all documents in support of the plea for such interim order are furnished to the party against whom the appeal is preferred; and (b) opportunity is given to such party to be heard in the matter.

70 of 1971.

21. The National Tax Tribunal shall have and exercise the same jurisdiction, powers and authority in respect of contempt of itself as the High Court has and may exercise such power or authority, for this purpose under the provisions of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971, which shall have effect subject to the modification that-

Power to punish for contempt.

- (a) any reference therein to a High Court shall be construed as including a reference to the National Tax Tribunal;
- (b) any reference to the Advocate General in section 15 of the said Act shall be construed as a reference to such law officer as the Central Government may specify in this behalf:

Provided that such matters shall be heard by a Special Bench consisting of three Judicial and two Technical Members constituted by the Chairperson.

22. The National Tax Tribunal may, after giving the parties to any proceedings before it, an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit.

Order of the National Tax Tribunal.

23. (1) On and from the appointed date, all matters and proceedings including appeals and references under the direct taxes and indirect taxes pending before any High Court immediately before that date shall stand transferred to the National Tax Tribunal.

Transfer of pending cases from High Court.

(2) Where any matter or proceeding including appeals and references stand transferred from the High Court to the National Tax Tribunal under sub-section (1),-

- (a) the High Court shall, as soon as may be after such transfer, forward the records pertaining to such matter or proceeding to the National Tax Tribunal;
- (b) the National Tax Tribunal shall, on receipt of such records, proceed to deal with such matter or proceeding from the stage at which it is transferred or from an earlier stage or de novo as it may deem fit;
- (c) the Chairperson shall constitute a Bench consisting of such number of Judicial and Technical Members as he deems fit for hearing cases transferred under this section.

24. Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the National Tax Tribunal may file an appeal to the Supreme Court within sixty days from the date of communication of the decision or order of the National Tax Tribunal to him:

Appeal to Supreme Court.

Provided that the Supreme Court may, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal within the said period, allow it to be filed within such time as it may deem fit.
